Speak UP focuses on advanced language use in everyday university contexts. Lessons include cultural information, commonly used phrases, and pronunciation tips. Participants have an opportunity to engage with their new knowledge through group discussions and role-plays with international and American peers.

September
- September 10: How Americans Talk: Pronunciation in the U.S.
- September 13: What Americans Say: Slang and Idioms in the U.S.
- September 17: How Americans Chat: Small Talk in the U.S.
- September 20: Improving Your Conversations: Sharing Stories and Anecdotes
- September 24: Improving Your Discussions: Expressing Opinions and Making Arguments
- September 27: Talking with Friends: Socializing at a Bar or Restaurant

October
- October 1: Talking with Professors: Asking for Help and Guidance
- October 4: Preparing for the U.S. Job Market
- October 8: Working with Peers: Collaborating on Group Projects
- October 11: Giving Presentations: Interacting with an Audience

Tuesdays at 4:00 p.m. in 218 Thomas
Fridays at Noon in 205 Ferguson
Hour 1: Language Lesson and Discussion
Hour 2: Activities and Practice (Optional)