In our global community, it is important to understand how the ways we use English can help or hinder communication--and how we can make our communication as clear as possible when interacting with people from diverse language and culture backgrounds.

IN THIS WORKSHOP, YOU WILL:

› Discuss how language and cultural differences can influence communication
› Practice respectful communication techniques to better understand and be understood across varieties of English
› Gain intercultural communication tools

Wednesday, October 13, 2021
12:00-1:15 P.M. // ONLINE VIA ZOOM

To register, please visit: http://eppic.la.psu.edu.